The favorite steamer COLUMBIA, Capt. James Harper, has recently been put in complete order, having had alded to her former accommodations a spacious saloon and fourteen comfortable staterooms, with entire new bedding and other furniture, and will until the 22d September next, leave Beltimore EVERY SATURDAY AFTERNOON, at six instead of four o'clock-thus affording passengers and shippers two hours more in Baltimore, and grriving at Point Lookout and Kinsale at more convenient hours in the morning. Returning, the Columbia will leave Riley's wharf, Washington, EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, at six, and Alexandria at seven o'clock, calling at all the usual stopping places, going and returning, to land and receive passengers and freight. Since the COLUMBIA has been enlarged, it rarely happens that she cannot take considerable additions to her usual freight. Shippers therefore having large lots of guano, pig iron, and othor freight, can have them carried by special agreement, on terms mutually advantageous, on application to the following agents.

BUSINESS CARDS. ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL, BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1860.

WHEN completed, six years ago, the ST. NICHOLAS was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then, it remains to-daywithout a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,600 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the travelling public, has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home like comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors,

SECURITY TO POLICY HOLDERS. THIS old and responsible Company insures A against loss or damage by Fire, almost every description of property, and offers to Merchants and others desiring insurance, the security of an actual Capital of $6,298,800, for the whole of which, and for any liabilities beyond, the Shareholders are INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE, even to the extent of their entire fortunes. The Shareholders number about one thousand, and as a large portion of these are persons of great wealth, the most ample provisions exist for meeting every possible claim against the Company. SUBJECT TO THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. In appointing an Agent for the United States, the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings instituted against or by said Company, in the same manner as if the Company were a Corporation or Company established by the laws of the United States, or any of the several States." PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF LOSSES IN THE UNITED STATES.

A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA, TO ENABLE HIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL Losses, without reference to London. LIBERAL TO THE INSURED. The uniform course of the Company has always been a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained.

ANNUAL INCOME.

The Income of the Company is now about $1. 000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different communities in which business is done. RATE OF PREMIUM.

The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk. The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favora ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a each insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may b determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. "The Fool hath said in his heart, there is no God." Truly a foolish thought! see all around Proofs of his being, full, and bright and strong: Earth holds them to our view in living flowers; And to our ear in heart-enrapturing song. The heavens above declare him-every star

That spreads-his little halo on the sky, Asserts a God. The clouds and heedless winds Proclaim his being as they float us by. Each ray of light that, from the rosy East, Steals through the gates of morn his being tells; And in the shadows of the golden West, 'Tis penciled on the high and distant hills.

Tis written on the sable brow of night, And uttered in the tempest and the cloud Tis echoed in the ripples of the brook. And Ocean's swell, and in the thunder loud Who lifted up the everlasting hills, space?" Hung out the Globe on nothing, as a toy, Brought forth the Sun, and fitted him his place? Who moulds the seasons of the running year, In genial temperature, to life's desires? Gives languid Nature, Winter's healthful snows, And cheerful Spring, her bosom to inspire? Who made what is in Nature's ample field, And peopled Earth with beings every form? Gave life and motion-instinct-reason-law, To all-from man down to the crawling worm?

All this the offspring of unthinking chance?
Preposterous thought! What but eternal mind Shall form such being, order, beauty, law? Say, if you will, 'tis mystery, yet designed. Not more the mystery, nor more the power, Which bade to bloom the buds on Aaron's rod, Than that which, on the simplest wildwood flower Distills sweet odors—'tis alike of God!

OLD FOGY June 29th. THE VERY WRATH OF GRIEF .- A few days since, the death of Mrs. Ruth F. Frye, at Winnegance, Maine, was noticed in the papers generally. It now appears, by a communication, signed by her father, and carried by her husband to the Bath Daily Times, that she became deranged under the pressure of calumny and and falsehood. The afflicted father thus speaks of her wicked maligners: "Could they look into that pale marble face, could they view the result of their own damnable work without a shudder? She now reigns with her Saviour in glory. But where are they? Ah! let them beware. There is a place in the realms of Pluto reserved for them by a just God, where shrieks and wailings arise on every side; where fiery furnaces roar and tremble, yawning open for the reception of their victims; where the exultant yell of a thousand fiends echoes and re-echoes around the vast cavern; where sealy serpents, with quivering tongues and firey eyes, coil their slimy folds; where the Furies, whose hair of snakes twists and wreathes around, sit, tearing the palpitating fibres of their victims with red hot tongs, t whom the relief of death is never given. Let them beware of this."

NARROW ESCAPE .- The Bedford Democrat

We learn that Col. Jesse S. Burks and family, consisting of his wife and children and a negro boy were on their way to Church, on Sunday last, in a spring wagon drawn by two horses. Coming to a gate on the road, the boy jumped out to let the vehicle pass, and in doing so cracked a whip which he held in his hand and frightened the horses. The "blooded steeds" commenced prancing, and before the Col. could rescue his family, he found the wagon going over, and strange to say our worthy Colonel rolled and fell to the distance of sixty feet down a steep cliff. The horses in their descent rolled over three times. The other members of the family, also went over the cliff for some distance. We are gratified, however,to be able to state that no one was killed, as an act of Providence seldom visited upon mortals here below. New York .- We stated Monday, on the authority of the police returns, that 729 groceries, cigar stores, confectionaries, clothing stores, liquor and lager beer shops, &c., were open last Sabbath.

Only three years ago, when an imperfect census of Sunday violations was taken by the Sabbath committee, no less than nine thousand six hundred and ninety-two places were open. There has been a gain, then, of nearly nine thousand in this brief period-thanks to the wise and persistent efforts of the Sabbath committee, with the steady support of the press, the police and the public. It is ty days on all from $50 to $100, and ninety days only a month since the police commissioners directed the cigar and confectionary stores to be closed -- a measure of obvious consistency and propriety; when that is done, we shall have the most orderly city, on Sunday, Quires, made in the most substantial n anner, to be found in the world. Does any one regretit? Is anybody injured by it .-- The World. Spurgeons Tabernacle,-This great tabernacle which is now building in London for Rev. C H. Spurgeon, will be completed next autumn. The main room will seat five thousand people; and there is to be a basement which will hold one thousand, besides a school-room for fifteen hundred children. The total cost will be about $150,000.
